Editor.

by Cora Collins & William Wollney

Over the years a number of people have inquired as to why we do not include the Umm Al Qiwayn stamp as a golf issue. After purchasing the stamp, I too wondered as it really looked like a golf club. Our member William Wollney, has obtained an answer to our question.

The stamp is a reproduction of a still life painting by Chardin. The oil painting was done about 1734 and is entitled 'The Smokers Case'. It hangs in the Louvre Museum in Paris, France. As one might surmise from the title, the long object to the left of the still life is a clay pipe, not a golf club. According to museum officials, on a larger scale one can see the pipe is glowing and emitting a wisp of smoke.

We are deeply appreciative of Mr Wollney's research in this matter. We now have no doubts about whether or not this stamp should be included as a golf issue.

GOLF PLACE POST OFFICE St. ANDREWS 1917-1948

by Stuart R. MacKenzie

Alas 'Golf Place' Post Office is no more. What a pity the powers that be did not have the foresight to see what an enterprise a Post Office with such a name would have been, especially in the 'Home of Golf' at St. Andrews.

To-date I have never seen a postally used envelope with the Golf Place postmark, only a handful of cut-outs. The Post Office opened on August 7, 1917 and closed it's doors on March 31, 1948. It was replaced by Ellice Place Post Office. The photograph shows the original location of the Office, now a shop.

Two single circle type datestamps were issued along with a Parcel Post stamp. Registration labels were used with the Office number 2 printed after St. ANDREWS.
