A list of recent USPS cancels

By Gary Schweiger and Lois Nelson

Welcome back! Our hope is that you have found collecting cancels a fun and rewarding part of the golf topical collection.

Since the last issue of Tee Time, there have been five US cancels and one official cachet. The list of golf cancels continues for 1995:

The BC Open - Sept. 15, 1995. One cancel for the one day in black ink.

The Ryder Cup - Sept. 19-24, 1995. One cancel for each of the dates in black ink. There may have been an additional day used, but we do not have any record of this.

CINCOPEX - October 21, 1995. One cancel for the one day in black ink.

Southern Hills Station - October 23-29, 1995. (We have ordered this cancel, but it has not arrived yet.) You can send for the cancels to the following address:

Southern Hills Station

333 West Fourth St.

Tulsa, OK. 74103-9998 USA

The Ryder Cup Station has an official cachet and there is a copy pictured here. It is in full color, and is probably one of the best examples of a golf official cover seen to date. The cover was still available in the first part of November at a cost of $5.32 each. Interested, send to the following address:

Ryder Cup Station

1335 Jefferson Road

Rochester, NY 14692-9998 USA

CANADIAN GOLF ISSUE

By Dr. Tom Woo

Recently Canada Post announced that it would issue a set of five stamps to commemorate the Centennial Year of the Royal Canadian Golf Association (RCGA). Featured on the issue are five of the oldest and more renowned Canadian golf courses. These include The Royal Montreal Golf Club at Ile-Bizard, Quebec, located just outside Montreal; Riverside Country Club in Moncton, New Brunswick, the second oldest golf club in The Maritimes; Victoria Golf Club, the oldest golf club on Canada's west coast; Banff Springs Golf Club, a world famous course designed by Stanley Thompson, the great Canadian architect, and Glen Abbey Golf Club, the permanent home of The Bell Canadian Open as well as the site of the Golf House and headquarters of The RCGA.

The RCGA is the governing body of golf in Canada and represents 1400 member clubs. Canada Post based their decision after much consultation with various bodies and associations. The stamps went on sale on June 6, 1995, 100 years to the day after the first meeting of The RCGA (then called The Canadian Golf Association) back on June 6, 1895.

All of the stamps feature a rendering of the course, a silhouette of a famous person associated with the course, and an inset showing the clubhouse for the particular course.

The Royal Montreal Golf Club was established in 1873 in Quebec. This is stated to be the oldest club in North America. Previous to the now permanent site of The Canadian Open this site has fielded many a Canadian Open. The founding member was Alexander Dennistoun, the so-called father of golf in Canada. His silhouette can be found in the lower right hand corner of the stamp.

The second golf course featured in the series is from the adjacent province of Ontario - Glen Abbey Golf Club. It was established in 1977 near Toronto, and is the site of every Canadian Open since 1977, except one. George Knudson, silhouetted on the stamp, probably one of Canada's finest male golfers frequented this club on a regular basis. Moving a bit further east to the coast is The Riverside Country Club, in Moncton, New Brunswick, which was established in 1897. An original member of Riverside was Mabel Thompson, who was Canada's first great woman golfer, is silhouetted on the stamp. Moving directly to the other side of the continent is The Victoria Golf Club in Victoria, British Columbia. This is the oldest golf club on Canada's western coast, and was founded by Harvey Coombe in 1893. His silhouette is on the lower right hand corner of the stamp. Lastly is The Banff Springs Golf Club which was established in 1927. This course was designed by Stanley Thompson, who is a member of The Canadian

Golf Hall Of Fame, and silhouetted on the stamp. The course continues to attract international attention due to its setting in The Canadian Rocky Mountains. Quite often wildlife can be seen on the course, and the ranger frequently warns golfers not to go looking in the woods for stray golf balls, as there are frequent black bear sightings!
