Charles Crombie postcard. "Rule 1 A ball is in play as soon as the player has made a stroke."

EDITOR'S CORNER

The IPGS Golf Advertising Postcards are doing well, the first two are completely sold out. Only a few of the second set are still available. A third set was in production but seems to have gone astray somewhere. It's problematic that we will have additional items made. Seems like the price has increased considerably since the first ones were produced. We will let our members know if we will be able to continue the cards.

We are still in need of additional material to publish. Please note we cannot use photocopies in black and white. Since we are now a color publication, all material submitted should be in color. Contact the editor if you have material to publish. I will work with you on the way to submit for publication.

Elsewhere in this issue we are trying to bring the new issues up to date. Please submit corrections, updates etc., to the editor.

A growing area is in the private issues. Please submit anything that comes your way. Most of these items are in very short supply so most collectors will not see them listed anywhere.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

I only have two announcements this month. First we have a reinstated member: #298 Richard T. Jester, 32 Aspe Lane, Hot Springs Village, Arkansas 71909 USA

The other is especially good news. We have a volunteer to be auctioneer. I will announce his name and address in the December issue of TEE TIME. We plan to begin the auction with the March 2010 issue.

However, in the meantime prepare some auction lots so you will be ready to send them as soon as you get the December 2009 issue. We will republish the rules in that issue. Remember you need to describe the lots and price them if you have a minimum bid which you will accept. Each lot needs to be in a separate glassine or package ready to be sent to new owner.

We will be bidding in US dollars but we are trying to work out some payment options other than US currency. For this first round, please limit the number of lots you send to 25. Once we get the auction going again we may or may not have a limit on the number of lots.

American Philatelic Society's Stampshow 2009

by Cora Collins

The American Philatelic Society's Stamp Show opened at the David H. Lawrence Convention Center in Pittsburgh, PA on August 6, 2009 and ran for four days. This is the largest US exhibition on an annual basis, only to be superceded by the Internationals hosted by the US every ten years. One of the big attractions is the Champion of Champion Exhibit which is composed of the winning (best in show) exhibits from all the National level shows held between September and July each year. Winners from approximately 30 shows are invited to participate.

In addition to the Champion of Champions Exhibit, an open competition exhibition is available to other exhibitors. My "Sport of Golf" exhibit was in the open competition. Exhibits are judged against standards set for each classification of exhibits. Mine was entered in the thematic category. It received a gold in open competition, the best thematic exhibit of the show and a first place topical award. If you are into exhibiting, you might want to check out the APS shows or annual events. If you want to look for material to further your collection, this is by far the largest show annually and has the most dealers, most of which are from the States, however, there are usually two or three from overseas as well.

There were two members of IPGS who are also members of the Wilkinsburg Stamp Club both in attendance and volunteering at the show, Jim Senkewitz and Thomas Reiff. Jim is the current president of the Wilkinsburg Stamp Club. In addition to the club table, Jim also volunteered at the APS registration booth a for several hours during the show. Jim also provided the following photos of the show. Two of the photos are overviews from above to give you a sense of the vastness of the area covered by the show. The third is a photo (left to right) Tom Reiff, Cora Collins, and Jim Senkewitz, the three IPGS members in attendance.

One evening during the show, Jim invited us to his house to see his "golf museum" which usurps the basement of their house. If it is related to golf--books, newspapers, figurines, glassware, tees, balls, score cards, towels, shirts, etc.--Jim collects it. In addition to the stamp clubs, he is a member of a postcard club and the Golf Collectors Society. Jim mentioned that he plays golf in traditional garb with hickories, however he never said how well he actually plays. I should have asked his handicap.

The stories of how Jim obtained some of the material was very entertaining and we laughed a lot!

These are a few views of the "museum". If you are ever in Pittsburgh, try to contact Jim and ask for a tour!

CANCELLATION CORNER

There is only one U.S. Cancellation in recent months. This was submitted by one of our members whom I did not write down his name! The cancel was used as a second day cancel at the World Golf Village Station, St. Augustine, Fl. 32. The cancel was sponsored by the World Golf Hall of Fame. The cancel honors Bob Hope.
