Front Postcard

This is not a postcard; it is a plea for someone to voluntarily take over the editorship of Tee Time. Due to a number of physical concerns, I am having to give up many of my activities, both in philately and other volunteer work that we do in our area.

If no one volunteers, you will have one more issue of Tee Time, December 2008.

We are also in need of an auction manager. I know that many of you benefitted from the auction—either buying or selling and yet no one has come forward and volunteered to act as auction manager. The members are the ones losing out in that they can neither buy your duplicates or sell theirs.

Anyone interested in either position should contact me immediately, otherwise we will become an inactive organization.

PETITION FOR CHICK EVANS STAMP

Bob Lynch

A formal request has been made of the US
Citizens Stamp Advisory Committee to issue a stamp for Chick Evans, possibly the greatest US amateur golfer and, without question, a great humanitarian as well. The site is:
www.chickevansstamp.com. This allows you to add your vote to the request if you are interested in doing so.

ALDERNEY

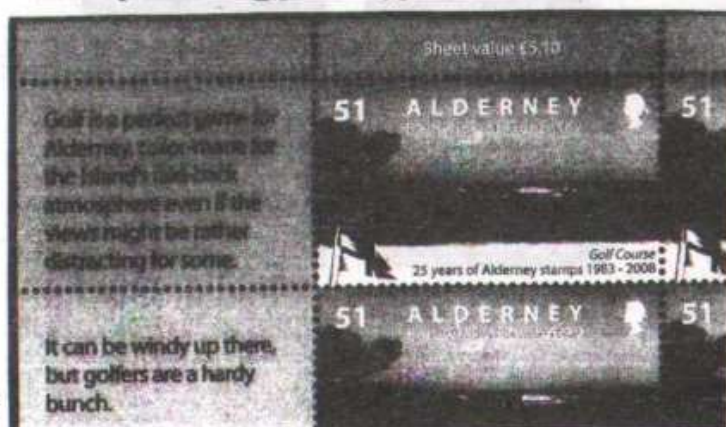

*Stephan Filanovitch, P. B. Sands Johnson,

six stamps include: The Old harbour (34p),
The breakwater that shields Braye harbour

FRANCE

Bill Graham, John LaPorta, Yutaka Matsubayashi, Jean Pierre Picquot & Dino Tognellini

On May 16, 2008 France issued a stamp for the 100th Anniversary of the Golf Club Aix Les Bains. A special cancel was also available for the first day of issue.

Another stamp featuring a putter was issued by France on May 28, 2008 as part of a self-adhesive booklet entitled Vacances or "Holidays". We are told that there was not a first day cancel available for the booklet. Four of the 10 different Holiday Stamps are shown below.

There is no face value on the stamps, however they sell for .55 Euro and carry 20 grams of mail.

GREAT BRITAIN

Jim Dewar

On November 30, 2007, Great Britain issued a sheet of stamps entitled "Glorious Scotland" which features landscapes of the Scottish countryside. These depictions of the landscape are labels next to a definitive Scotland Lion stamp. The sheet consists of 20 Lion stamps and 10 different landscapes. One of the landscapes features the "Old Course" at St. Andrews. Unfortunately, I am not able to reproduce the copy which I have.

SOUTH KOREA

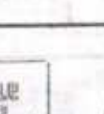

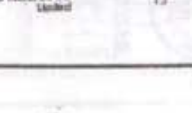

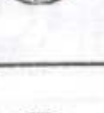

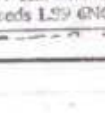

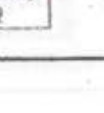

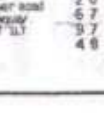

Jim Dewar

A souvenir sheet, part of a cartoon series, was issued by South Korea May 4, 2002. It has been assigned #2080a by Scott. It appears a number of caricatures have clubs in hand or are swinging clubs. It is entitled Schoolmaster and children from "Mengkkong-i Seodang Village School", by Seung-woon Yoon.

Many Thanks

We need to thank Jim DeWar, Stephan Filanovitch, Bill Graham, P. B. Sands Johnson, John LaPorta, Patricia Loehr, Yutaka Matsubayashi, Jean-Pierre Picquot Michael Sander and Dino Tognellini for their contributions to this issue of Tee Time. Without their efforts, we probably would not have this issue.

Patricia contributed another four-page update of Great Britain Meter Stamps. She says she has quite more and will provide them for the December issue of Tee Time.

The way these updates are formatted, they could be extracted and added to the Slogan Meter Book which most of you received a few years back.

"Chick" Evans

Michael Sander

Charles E. "Chick" Evans, Jr. was born July 18, 1890 and died November 6, 1979. He was born in Indianapolis, Indiana and grew up on the north side of Chicago. At the age of eight, Evans was first exposed to golf by being a caddie at a Chicago course, the Edgewater Golf Club. From these beginnings, Evans became one of the most acclaimed American amateur golfers of his time, eventually earning induction into the World Golf Hall of Fame in 1975. The accomplishment that gave him the most contemporary publicity came in 1916, when Evans won both the US Amateur and the US

Open in the same year. He was the first golfer to accomplish that and Bobby Jones was the only one to do it since. Evans also won the Western Open in 1910, the only amateur to do so until Scott Verplank in 1985.

Into the 1960s, Evans was an active participant in senior tournaments. Even at his age, he was competing in the US Amateur events, and eventually set a record of completing 50 of those championships. Evans played his last rounds of competitive golf in 1967. After his retirement, he continued to attend events as a spectator and converse with the fans and players. He lived to be 89 years of age.

After his win in 1916, Evans was given several thousand dollars in royalties for recording golf instructions for the Brunswick Record Company. If he accepted the money, he would have lost his amateur status. Evans's mother suggested that he could put the money to good use by sponsoring a scholarship fund for caddies. (Evans had been unable to finish his matriculation at Northwestern University due to financial reasons.) Evans is quoted as saying: "My mother wouldn't think of accepting my money unless we could arrange it to be trusted to furnish education for deserving qualified caddies." He also went on to say, "She pointed out that the money came from golf and thus should go back into golf. It was all her idea."

Evans went to the Western Golf Association (WGA), an organization that ran golf championships in the Midwest, to get their support for his scholarship. The organization initially declined to support Evans, but eventually agreed to oversee his fund. By 1929, the Evans Scholars Foundation had formed.

Editor's Note: Both the Western Golf Association and the Evans Scholars Foundation are located in Golf, Illinois.

Evans's dream was finally made a reality in 1930 when two caddies by the name of Harold Fink and Jim McGinnis were named the first two Evans Scholars. The criteria used to choose these recipients were scholarship, fellowship and leadership. Since that time, over 8,000 caddies have become Evans Scholars and attained college educations. The scholarship program continues today as the largest scholarship organization in sports and the largest privately-funded scholarship program in the United States.

Scholarship houses exist at the following universities: University of Illinois, Northwestern University, Marquette University, University of Wisconsin, Purdue University, Ohio State University, Northern Illinois University, University of Missouri, Indiana University, University of Michigan, Michigan State University, Miami University (Ohio) and the University of Minnesota. In addition to these universities at which houses exist, scholarship recipients attend several other universities around the country.

In 1960 Evans was voted the Bobby Jones Award, the highest honor given by the United States Golf Association in recognition of distinguished sportsmanship in golf.

JAPANESE ECHO CARDS

by Yutaka Matsubayashi

Since 2006 the issuance of Echo cards has decreased significantly as they are becoming unpopular. A second reason is due to the cut in advertising costs by many enterprises.

The only golf related issues we have had in two years were issued by Tokuyama Kokusai Country Club. The card on the left was issue June 1, 2006 and the card on the right was issued May 1, 2008. The advertising portion of the card (lower part) is the same on both cards. The only part which changed between 2006 and 2008 was the indicia.

GUINE-BISSAU

Yutaka Matsubayashi also sent photocopies of two souvenir sheets from Guine Bissau. If we find that they are legitimate issues, we will feature them in the December 2008 issue of Tee Time. Otherwise we do not want to promote the collecting of seals or labels, thinking that they are valid for postage. If anyone finds a Scott or Stanley Gibbons number for them, please advise.

PAST ISSUES AND SLOGAN METER HANDBOOK

Anyone wishing to obtain back copies of Tee Time or the Slogan Meter Handbook should do it now. The back issues of Tee Time are $1.50 when six or more are ordered. Otherwise they are $2.00. Either way we pay the postage.

The Slogan Meter Handbook sells for $15.00 including postage. Anyone wishing to purchase these are urged to write: IPGS, P. O. Box 2183, Norfolk, VA 23501-2183 USA.
