CORRECTION

After the June edition of - THE TIME had gone to press, we had to make a last minute decision regarding the cachet for the Francis Ouimet issue. Unfortunately the artist did not make the deadline for having the cachets printed by a four color process. Consequently, we substituted the IPGS-LOGO.

"COLONEL BOGEY"-postscript

On song at Fortrose!

By COLIN FARQUHARSON

NOT many people know the part played by Fortrose and Rosemarkie golf course in the composition of the tune "Colonel Bogey".

Apparently, its composer, Bandmaster Ricketts of the 93rd Highlanders, was one of many officers stationed across the water at Fort-George who were honorary members of the golf club. He frequently partnered his colonel in rounds over the course in the pre-World War I days when the term bogey was used for what we would now call the par.

"While playing together one day their attention was drawn by another golfer who whistled from some distance away to attract their attention. The two notes of the whistle became imprinted in the bandmaster's mind and came to form the opening bar of the famous tune he was later inspired to write and which he entitled 'Colonel Bogey'."

Just one of many interesting and informative anecdotes from the book published by Fortrose and Rosemarkie Golf Club to mark their centenary this year. Copies are available at £3 plus 30p for packing and postage from the secretary and treasurer, Mrs M. Collier, at 18 Ness Road, Fortrose.

The Ouimet Commemorative Stamp

BY ROBERT M. JENNEY

Of all the ways we honor our heroes, none is more unsung than the ubiquitous postage stamp. It is the most pervasive, most democratic, and most recognized honor that we can give. Pervasive because it is disseminated worldwide; democratic because each is issued in all our names; and most recognized because they are in daily use.

Recognition on stamps is also an honor most difficult to achieve. It must be posthumous by at least a decade, screened by panels of experts, and in competition with other worthy personalities from activities that range over the whole scope of human endeavors."—Herbert Moore Noted Stamp Authority

On June 1st, two weeks before the 1988 U.S. Open Championship, and for four weeks thereafter, posters announcing the issuance of the U.S. Commemorative Stamp honoring Francis D. Ouimet will be exhibited at over 40,000 Post Offices across the nation. 150 million Francis Ouimet Commemorative Stamps will be printed by the U.S. Postal Service. On the afternoon of June 13, the first day of issue, a formal ceremony will be held at the 1988 U.S. Open at The Country Club in Brookline, Massachusetts.

In 1985, at the request of the officers of the Ouimet Scholarship Fund, I accepted the task of spearheading the effort to gain approval for a Commemorative Stamp. I went to Washington to seek the crucial support of House Speaker Tip O'Neill and to ask him to become the stamp's initial sponsor. Speaker O'Neill is both an avid golfer and a serious stamp collector. He was candid in telling me that obtaining approval for the issuance of a Commemorative Stamp would be a very difficult undertaking.

All seven living U.S. Hall of Famers knew Francis Ouimet personally. Their support for a Commemorative Stamp in his honor would serve as convincing evidence that the stamp had strong endorsement at the highest levels of championship golf. It was felt that a formal joint Petition to the U.S. Postmaster General bearing all their signatures would be certain to carry considerable weight in the deliberations of the Postmaster General's Citizen Advisory Committee. To secure the signatures of the legendary Hall of Famers, we enlisted the efforts of Herbert Warren Wind, golf's foremost historian, and a long-standing friend of the seven living Hall of Famers. Herb Wind was devoted to Francis Ouimet.

President Ford agreed enthusiastically to forward the Petition to the U.S. Postmaster General together with his own letter of personal support.

The United States Golf Association endorsed our efforts. Frank Hannigan, USGA Executive Director, and Janet Seagle, Museum Curator, were both great Ouimet admirers. We are appreciative of their advice and assistance in this effort.

Stamp collecting is the most popular hobby in the world. There are over 25 million stamp collectors in the United States and legions more overseas. The Postmaster General's Citizens' Stamp Advisory Committee has the formidable task of dealing annually with over 20,000 requests for a Commemorative Stamp. Only 24 U.S. Commemorative Stamps are finally approved for issuance each year.

As a result of discussions with others who had been involved in similar efforts we knew that it was crucial that the campaign be sustained at a high level of intensity throughout the long selection process. We were fortunate to gain the support of Vice President Bush whose grandfather, George Herbert Walker, had established the Walker Cup when he was president of The United States Golf Association. The Vice President's father, Senator Prescott Bush, Sr., also served as President of the USGA and had been a close personal friend of Ouimet's. Vice President Bush was helpful in making known to the U.S. Postmaster General his family's long standing ties to the USGA, and his own strong support for a Ouimet commemorative stamp.

Speaker O'Neill arranged for a meeting with Congressman Bill Ford of Michigan, Chairman of the Postal and Civil Service Committee of the House of Representatives. We reviewed with Representative Ford the merits and background of our project and he agreed to lend his backing.

At long last, on April 2, 1987, I received an exciting telephone call from Speaker O'Neill telling me he had received word from the U.S. Postmaster General, Preston Robert Tisch, that the issuance of a Francis D. Ouimet Commemorative Stamp had been officially approved! All of us involved in the endeavor were overjoyed to learn that our quest to honor America's First Golf Hero had been successful.

We feel sure that everyone interested in the sport of golf will want to have one or more Limited Edition Official First Day Covers, as shown in the illustration. The First Day of Issue Francis Ouimet Commemorative Stamp Covers will be available by mail order only during the thirty day period ending July 13, 1988. Pursuant to U.S. Postal Regulations your mail request for First Day Covers must be postmarked on or before July 13, 1988. To obtain your Commemorative Covers, send a self-addressed envelope with your payment: one Cover for $4.00, two Covers for $6, four Covers for $10 to the 1988 U.S. Open Office, P.O. Box #1400, The Country Club, Brookline Village, Mass. 02147.

POSTCARD CORNER

by Stuart R. MacKenzie

Gleneagles Golf Courses are in Perthshire, Scotland. They were opened in the early 1920s. To promote the opening of the courses the Caledonian Railway Company commissioned an artist to prepare designs for 6 cards which are illustrated below. They depict James Braid who laid out the courses, with some of his 'Golfing Girls'. The original art-work of four of these cards is on show at the Glasgow Transport Museum. Until he saw these scarce cards, the Curator was not aware that six designs existed.

Peace and quiet...

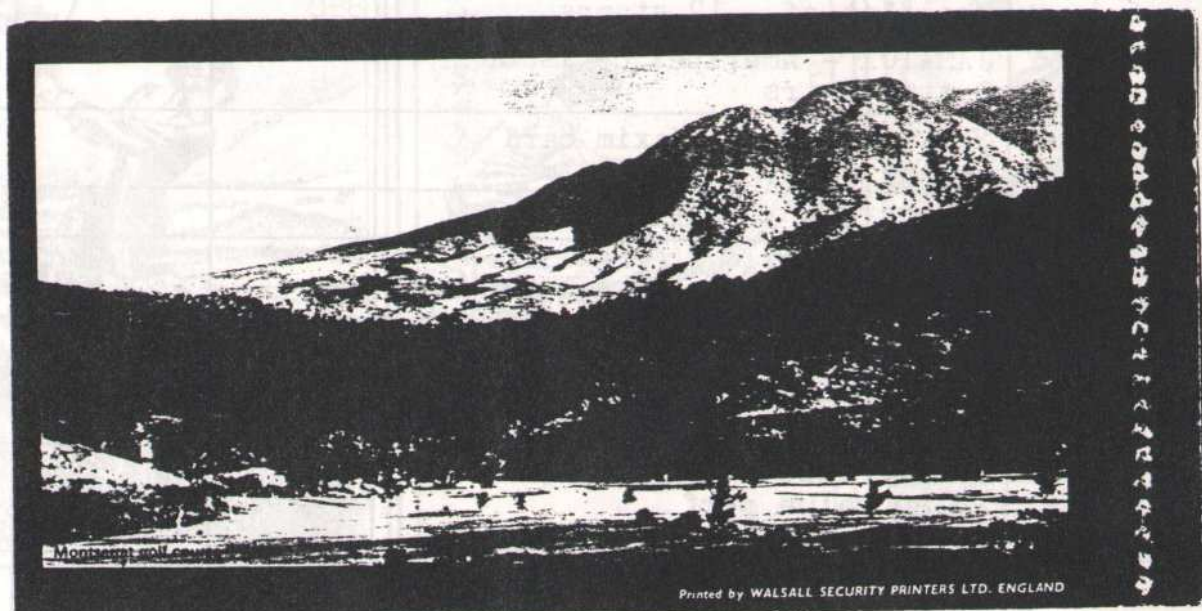

Montserrat offers peace and relaxation. There is superb swimming from the dark sand beaches and fine snorkeling. There is sailing, fishing, tennis and golf on the finest and most beautiful course in the Caribbean. Scenic drives and many fine walks - to the Great Alps Waterfall to the impressive sulphur springs - and many others reveal the varied beauty of Montserrat.

Steelbands provide music to listen or dance to and the throb of hot rhythm makes a vivid contrast with a cool night breeze under the stars.

For the visitor who falls in love with Montserrat's peace and quiet there is Runaway Ghaut to drink whose waters, so the legend has it, will ensure his return to this beautiful island.

the incredible beauty of the surrounding waters combine to make this sport delightful for the average swimmer. ST. VINCENT offers an abundance of shallow reefs, crystal-clear seas and white coral sands.

One of the Caribbean's finest small golf courses, ST. VINCENT's AQUADUCT, is portrayed on the 20c denomination. Set in the verdant and historic Buccament Valley, the Aquaduct's 9-hole course is a thing of beauty, with its clubhouse, swimming pool, tennis courts, cottages, restaurant and pool-side bar, all in a lush natural setting over and around a rollicking mountain stream of pools and cascades. The remains of an aqueduct that once served the Valley's Sugar Mill stands proudly sentinel and lends its atmosphere as well as its name.
