Preface

Indexing is done by subject and geographical area or country of issue/usage.

In the following listings the first number refers to the issue number (1 through 24) and the second number is the page number in that issue. For example, 3/30 is issue number 3, page 30. To date, the pages have been numbered consecutively since the first issue, page 1 through page 288.

A series of entries is divided by semi-colon.

An electronic copy of this document in WordPerfect 5.1/5.2 format is available upon request from David Klueh, P.O.Box 24086, Lexington, KY 40524-4086, USA. Please supply a blank diskette (1.44 MB 3.5" or 1.2 MB 5.25") and $1.25 (US and Canada) or $2.50 (other addresses) with your request. This price recovers only the costs of postage and diskette mailers. Checks drawn on US banks or postal money orders only, please.
